City Schools to Host ‘Boardrooms to Classrooms’ Event on March 29

WHAT: Nearly 30 area corporate, government, and community representatives will visit several Richmond City schools for an enlightening opportunity to shadow RPS principals. During this experience, business leaders will get a first-hand look at school operations, garner a better understanding of the educational achievements, challenges and opportunities present at each school, and examine the critical role of K-12 education in strengthening the regional workforce.

WHO: Richmond Public Schools
The Greater Richmond Chamber of Commerce
Business/Community/Education leaders

WHEN: March 29, 2013
8:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Richmond City elementary, middle and high schools

MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES: Follow community, business, and government leaders as they assume the role of a Richmond City school principal. A special debriefing luncheon will be held after the shadowing experiences beginning 11:30 a.m. at The Speakeasy--Hippodrome Theater--located at 528 North 2nd Street.

CONTACT: Mieko Timmons, School-Community Partnership Specialist, 819-4382

###