

RICHMOND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

RICHMOND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

WWW.RICHMOND.K12.VA.US

Our Mission:

The mission of the Richmond Public Schools, the gateway to infinite possibilities, is to lead our students to extraordinary, honorable lives as inspirational global leaders who shape the future with intellect, integrity, and compassion through challenging, engaging learning experiences guided by highly qualified, passionate educators in partnership with families and communities.

Our Goals:

- Student Achievement
- Safe and Nurturing Schools
- Strong Leadership
- Social and Personal Responsibility
- Professional Development
- Partnership with Stakeholders
- Fiscal Accountability
- Parent and Community Satisfaction

RICHMOND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

RICHMOND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

WWW.RICHMOND.K12.VA.US

Our Mission:

The mission of the Richmond Public Schools, the gateway to infinite possibilities, is to lead our students to extraordinary, honorable lives as inspirational global leaders who shape the future with intellect, integrity, and compassion through challenging, engaging learning experiences guided by highly qualified, passionate educators in partnership with families and communities.

Our Goals:

- Student Achievement
- Safe and Nurturing Schools
- Strong Leadership
- Social and Personal Responsibility
- Professional Development
- Partnership with Stakeholders
- Fiscal Accountability
- Parent and Community Satisfaction

rps

Richmond Public Schools COOL POINTS

- The district's Middle School Renaissance Initiative offers thematic instruction at each school.
- Ninety-eight percent of the students in the Class of 2011 graduated and earned more than $22 million in scholarships.
- Richmond Public Schools spends $.75 of every dollar on instruction and instructional technology.
- Every Richmond City elementary school offers foreign language instruction.
- RPS participates in the "Schools for Excellence" initiative funded by a five-year, $27 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education.
- Nigel Richardson from Richmond Community High School made history as the first Richmond City student to introduce the President of the United States.
- The district offers the state's first teacher residency program in collaboration with Virginia Commonwealth University.
- The district operates three premier preschool learning centers to address the needs of the City's youngest learners. These collaborative centers are the first of their kind in the area.
- LaTonya Waller, a Brown Middle School teacher, is the 2011 Virginia Teacher of the Year.
- The district houses the Governor's Career and Technical Education Academy for Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) at its Richmond Technical Center.

*All statements based on figures from 2010-11 and 2011-12 school years.

rps

Richmond Public Schools COOL POINTS

- The district's Middle School Renaissance Initiative offers thematic instruction at each school.
- Ninety-eight percent of the students in the Class of 2011 graduated and earned more than $22 million in scholarships.
- Richmond Public Schools spends $.75 of every dollar on instruction and instructional technology.
- Every Richmond City elementary school offers foreign language instruction.
- RPS participates in the "Schools for Excellence" initiative funded by a five-year, $27 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education.
- Nigel Richardson from Richmond Community High School made history as the first Richmond City student to introduce the President of the United States.
- The district offers the state's first teacher residency program in collaboration with Virginia Commonwealth University.
- The district operates three premier preschool learning centers to address the needs of the City's youngest learners. These collaborative centers are the first of their kind in the area.
- LaTonya Waller, a Brown Middle School teacher, is the 2011 Virginia Teacher of the Year.
- The district houses the Governor's Career and Technical Education Academy for Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) at its Richmond Technical Center.

*All statements based on figures from 2010-11 and 2011-12 school years.