Huguenot To Host Noche de Orgullo Latino
“A Night of Latino Pride”

WHAT: Huguenot High School will host its first annual Latino Heritage Celebration designed to highlight the Latino community, as well as celebrate Huguenot’s diverse student population. The event, featuring music, dancing and refreshments, will connect families with participating community organizations, help families to better understand school offerings and protocols, and provide a forum where parents and students can fellowship with Huguenot staff and community partners.

“At Huguenot High School, we encourage an inclusive culture where diversity is celebrated. We hope our entire community will come out to fellowship with us as we learn more about each other and the wonderful offerings we have here at the school,” said Jafar Barakat, Principal, Huguenot High School.

WHO: Huguenot staff, students and parents; community members; and local dignitaries.
